Sub:- Empanelment of Guest Faculty in the colleges under the A&N Administration- reg.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the letter No. 12/MP-ANI/2026/186 dated 03.05.2026 and letter dated 17.06.2026 received from Shri Bishnu Pada Ray, Member of Parliament (LS), Andaman & Nicobar Islands addressed to the Chief Secretary, A&N Administration regarding continuation /extension of empanelment of existing guest faculty in Degree colleges under the A&N Administration for academic session 2026-2027 and suggested the following measures to be adopted:-

1. Suitable instructions may be issued to all Colleges to give priority to existing guest faculty for continuation/extension of their engagement without inviting them applications afresh, subject to their willingness and satisfactory performance.
2. Fresh recruitment or empanelment may be undertaken only in cases where vacancies remain unfilled or where specific new requirements arise.
3. A uniform policy may be adopted across all higher educational institutions to ensure consistency and transparency in engagement practices.
4. The practice followed in institutions such as the Law College and ANIIMS(MBBS) college may be replicated, where experienced existing faculty/doctors are continued to maintain academic stability.

In this regard, the matter has been examined and the competent authority has decided to adopt the following guidelines while empanelment of the Guest Faculty in the colleges from the current academic session onwards.

1. NET/Ph.d qualified local candidates of A&N Islands with experience may be given First Preference.
2. NET/PH.d qualified candidates of Mainland or anywhere with experience may be given Second Preference
3. Unqualified(Non-Ph.d/NET) candidates of local candidates of A&N Islands will be given preference or and above unqualified candidates of Mainland, if any.

However, the empanelment of the Guest Faculty should be considered in accordance with UGC Regulations only and priority would be given to the existing Faculty.

The above instructions may be strictly followed by all colleges while empanelment of Guest faculty and a compliance report may be submitted to this Administration.

Yours faithfully,

Assistant Secretary (Hr.Edn)
